

Fall Season Special

November 1st through the End of Year! ...Perfect for the holidays or any occasion!

Value, Quality, Tradition...Celebrate with Domo Japanese Country Foods

Shabu Shabu Dinner 5-20 people unlimited meats and veggies

What is Shabu Shabu?

Shabu shabu is a Japanese variant of a hot pot dish. This dish is related to sukiyaki in style, both use thinly sliced meats and vegetables that are cooked to your taste right at your table. Shabu Shabu however, is starkly different in taste; Shabu Shabu is more savory and less sweet than sukiyaki. It is considered a winter dish but can be enjoyed year-round.

Domo Style Shabu Shabu

In Denver, only at Domo are these choices available!

Hearty Meats—All you can eat-unlimited!

Choose one; sliced beef or sliced pork

Choose two soup broths from the following:

Soy Sauce, miso (Japanese bean paste) kara miso (chili and Japanese bean paste) or sakekasu miso (sake husk and Japanese bean paste)

All combinations include tofu, udon noodles, enoki mushrooms, carrots, scallion, romaine lettuce and chrysanthemum leaves.

Served with four of Domo's popular country side dishes

All together including unlimited meats $20.00 per Person
(not including tax and tip)

Sake — on Tap! Serve yourself!

Domo has TWO distinct sakes on tap for a little holiday cheer!
Your party is charged for only for what you drink ; by the inch!
One inch equals the same amount as a small flask at ½ the price! $2.50 per inch!

